1.1. Website

1.1.1. Website responsibility

The EXFAN project public website is developed and maintained by EASN-TIS. For any inquiries please contact g.anagnostopoulos@easn.net and giota.sakellariou@easn.net.

1.1.2. Disclaimer notice

The EXFAN consortium maintains this website to enhance public access to information about the projects' progress and activities. The site contains information provided by the EXFAN consortium members. This information may be subject to copyright and may be changed without notice. Our goal is to keep this information timely and accurate. If errors are brought to our attention, we will try to correct them. However, we make no representations or warranties of any kind, expressed or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability with respect to the website or the information, products, services, or related graphics contained on the website for any purpose. Any reliance you place on such information is therefore strictly at your own risk.

In no event will we be liable for any loss or damage including, without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damage whatsoever arising from loss of data or profits arising out of, or in connection with, the use of this website or any external linked websites. The inclusion of any links does not necessarily imply a recommendation nor does it endorse the views expressed within them. Through this website you are able to link to other websites which are not under the control of EASN-TIS or the EXFAN consortium. We have no control over the nature, content and availability of those sites.

The use of published postal addresses, telephone or fax numbers, e-mail-addresses or any other individual data for marketing purposes is prohibited; offenders sending unwanted spam messages will be punished and held liable.

Every effort is made to keep the website up and running smoothly. However, the EXFAN consortium or any individual partner takes no responsibility for, and will not be liable for, the website being temporarily unavailable due to technical issues beyond our control.
